Adaptation is not always easy, working is hard, but it is important to remember that you are temporarily in the United States for a new learning experience. The key to a successful program is to stay positive and be flexible.

Participants who accept the position, must have basic math skills. Participants should study the American currency guide prior to arrival.

Participants will do light cleaning and dusting of store displays and should not have allergies to dust.

Participants who accept the position, must be willing to remove trash.

No job, or hours at a job, can be 100% guaranteed. Regardless of what your work contract states, there is always a possibility that you will work more or less hours. Expect lower hours during the first two weeks of training.

The concept of time plays a great role in American culture. Being late consistently makes you unreliable. Come to work as scheduled and on time. Good attendance ensures your hours.

Some work days will be slower than others. It is common practice for employees to be sent home early if business does not allow for a full staff.

Second jobs must be approved by CHI prior to starting. Your CHI coordinator will help you with this process. Your second job can not conflict with your primary job. If you have a conflict, your primary employer will not guarantee 32 hours.

Open a bank account and get a debit card. Do not carry cash, valuables or your documents with you. Bring an alternative ID to carry. Keep your passport and documents stored safely at your housing.

Participants should use common sense, stay with a partner or friend, especially at night. It is recommended participants let a friend know where they are.

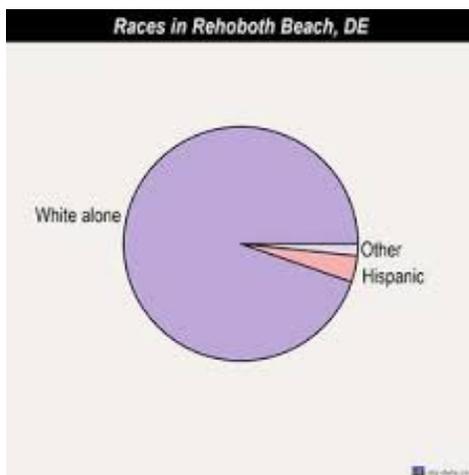

Bicycle riders with helmets had an 85 percent reduction in their risk of head injury and an 88 percent reduction in their risk of brain injury. If you ride a bicycle in the US, wear a helmet.

The city of Rehoboth Beach holds safety orientations for all Work & Travel participants. Participants should attend at least one of these meetings. Check with your coordinator for date and times.

A security deposit protects landlords from the cost associated with: parties, loud noise, damage, dirt, trash, unpaid rent, or utility bills. Participants who leave housing before the end of their program will *NOT* see any portion of their security deposit returned. Your refund is conditional, CHI coordinators can not negotiate a return.

Participants should be aware the United States is a melting pot. You will come into contact with all kinds of people and ways of life. All ages, shapes and sizes, levels of wealth, backgrounds, religions, sexual preferences, and ethnicities.
